

SUBJECT OF RESOLUTION: The Rights of Refugees
SUBMITTED TO: The Commission on Human Rights
SUBMITTED BY: Venezuela, Brazil, Netherlands, Denmark, Fiji

The Commission on Human Rights

1 Recognizing the importance of integration of asylum seekers into host countries in order to 2 prevent the destabilizing effect of a non-producing refugee population,

3 Recalling that an asylum seeker is a refugee desiring residency in the host country,

4 Noting with deep concern that not all member states can afford such integration programs,

5 Further Recognizing that the said programs need to be expanded to include job training and 6 cultural education,

- 7 1. Endorses the formation of a CHR-Integration fund for Asylum-seekers, which shall 8 provide need-based aid to member states on a case by case, application basis;
- 9 2. Proclaims that the said funds shall be used towards educating asylum-seeking refugees in 10 the traditions, culture, history, and language of the host country;
- 11 3. Recognizes that the asylum-seekers should be encouraged to simultaneously preserve 12 their cultural roots;
- 13 4. Calls upon this fund to also provide the public with information regarding the intent and 14 outcomes of each program to the citizens of the host country in an effort to eliminate 15 racial discrimination and xenophobia;
- 16 5. Requests that the fund will make available the job training of asylum seekers by 17 multinational corporations (MNCs) and, if applicable, local public and private companies 18 who are in need of additional employees.
