Triangular Development Cooperation

SUBMITTED TO: The Economic and Social Council

SUBMITTED BY: Greece

The Economic and Social Council

- 1            Reaffirming the commitment of the United Nations to global development and
2 collaboration,
3
4            Realizing the need to revise the terminology of global “North” and “South” in
5 today's world,
6
7            Strengthening the ideals put forth in the Paris Declaration,
8
9            Recognizing the effectiveness of international cooperation between developed and 10 developing nations in global economic and social improvement,
11
12           Recalling the experiences of emerging states in both the global “North” and
13 “South,” and their responsibilities as intermediary parties in Triangular Development
14 Cooperation,
15
16            1. Calls for an additional definition of aid to emphasize the critical areas of 17 science and technology in the interest of providing more specificity to aid-giving and 18 ensuring proper usage of aid, while still recognizing the utility of monetary aid;
19
20            2. Proposes usage of the term “capacity building” to refer to these new forms of 21 non-monetary aid in order to have clear goals for development assistance and aid
22 distribution;
23
24            3. Encourages the exchange and implementation of ideas regarding improvement
25 of worldwide education as the first step to successful development;
26
27            4. Endorses the assignment of clear roles and responsibilities to all aid-giving and 28 receiving nations to ensure diversification of aid and aid distribution in Triangular 29 Development Cooperation.
