Security Council Attempts to Come to a Consensus on Palestinian Membership

The 2024 AMUN United Nations Security Council has many pressing issues to cover this year. The first, and perhaps one of the most pressing, is the conflict between Israel and Palestine. In particular, the Security Council is discussing accepting Palestine into the United Nations (UN) as a full-fledged Member State. Several Member States appear to support this proposal. One of the most [\[... More\]](#)

1961 Historical Security Council: Humanitarian Crisis in the Congo, the Red Scare and upheaval in Latin America

At the Historical Security Council of 1961 (HSC61) meeting this weekend, HSC61 discussed how to proceed in the new year with former Prime Minister Patrice Lumumba jailed and opposing ideological groups continuing to vie for power in the Congo. Previous Resolutions (specifically 143 and 146) were not successful in preventing violence or resolving the brewing crisis in Central Africa. Ceylon motioned to [\[... More\]](#)

ECOSOC: Discussions on Human Rights

Collaboration between Member States will be needed to adapt with a changing world. The Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC) is focusing on progression of social and economic practices while also discussing human rights and the freedoms everyone has as a person. Member States will focus on aligning topics within the 2030 UN Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs). This agenda acknowledges 17 SDGs to better [\[... More\]](#)

Sustainability in General Assembly Plenary

The Representatives of the General Assembly Plenary are tackling the human right to a clean, healthy and sustainable environment and the safety and security of humanitarian personnel and the protection of United Nations (UN) personnel. Article 25 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights states that “Everyone has the right to a standard of living adequate for the health and well-being of [\[... More\]](#)

Press Release: US and United Arab Republic – Concerning the Esteemed Delegation from Belgium’s Answers in the United Nations Historical Security Council 1961

Early this morning, the United Nations Historical Security Council (1961), called on the esteemed delegation of Belgium, as a party to the dispute in the situation in the Congo. During this session, the HSC hoped to gain more clarity on the strongly supported notion of a ceasefire from the members. However, this period raised more questions than answers, including the further clouding of the motivations [\[... More\]](#)

Letter to the Editor: UAE’s Response to the Press Release on Literacy from the Holy See in GA3

As a nation deeply devoted to our Islamic values, the United Arab Emirates (UAE) follows teachings from the Quran that emphasize the importance of knowledge for both men and women. As the Prophet Muhammad teaches, all individuals should have the ability to pursue an understanding of the metaphysical world through education. The UAE has spent time and energy aiding the development of literacy initiatives across [\[... More\]](#)
