How AMUN Made Me Successful in Med School

When I look back on the journey that led me to medical school, it's not just my passion for science or my commitment to healthcare that stands out. A significant influence on my success that garners many inquiries is my involvement in American Model United Nations (AMUN). This year, I served as the Vice President of the General Assembly, training the chairs in the simulations [\[... More\]](#)

General Assembly Third Committee Passes Landmark Literacy Resolution

Late on the evening of 24 November 2024, Representative Grace Wilson of Germany presented Resolution 2-1, formerly known as Draft Resolution AA, marking the first resolution to be brought to the floor of the General Assembly Third Committee (GA3) for debate. The resolution, a collaborative effort between the United Kingdom, Slovenia, Malta, Georgia and several other nations, had gathered enough sponsorship to [\[... More\]](#)

Letter to the Editor: Palestine's Response to Israel

Ladies and gentlemen, I write this in response to the absurd, unhinged and entirely fabricated accusations made by the Israeli delegation. Their statement is nothing more than a theatrical performance by a regime that has perfected the art of playing the victim while perpetrating endless atrocities. So let us be crystal clear: Israel, as the occupying force and main aggressor, has no right to lecture [\[... More\]](#)

World Health Assembly Switches Focus to World Drug Problem to Streamline Committee Time

Representative Jude Beekman of Libya moved to consider topic two of the World Health Assembly, the public health dimension of the world drug problem, with overwhelming support after speeches began to reach a standstill in formal procedure on the second day of committee. "Our time might be used better if we perhaps switch topics as we are waiting for some papers [\[... More\]](#)

The Holy See: Working Towards Peace and Diplomacy in General Assembly First Committee

On 23 November 2024, the Holy See made their position clear in the General Assembly First Committee, emphasizing a commitment to peaceful resolutions and prayer as central pillars of their approach. Representatives Sarah Rakoczy and Sandy Martin of the Holy See, also known as Vatican City, have taken an influential role in the committee. "Our goal is to make connections [\[... More\]](#)

Israel Undermines Security Council by Rejecting Resolution SC/1

The United Nations Security Council (UNSC) received a statement from Israel in response to the passing of Resolution SC/1 on providing aid to Lebanon during the evening of 24 November 2024. In its statement, Israel said, "Hence, let us be crystal clear: Israel unequivocally rejects this resolution and all attempts to prevent us from exercising our right to self-defense." Later in its [\[... More\]](#)
